

Barely Blind, Life On Wilson Street

We don't want you anymore; we've got everything we need.
You believed in all our battles; even those that came from me.
I had to be so naive, so naive.
What the hell happened to me? This isn't what we wanted.
Desperate eyes. focusing light
Once you have my name you'll want to take it from me.
Desperate eyes. focusing light.
It's a personality crisis that i got when i left the grove.
It's too late to take what you wanted;
Way too late to take what you need
And is it summer yet?
Cause i'm sick of freezing.
You cant win in winter with Decembers weather.
Straight forward. Stare ahead and embrace yourself
Put on them seatbelts.
Desperate eyes. Focusing light
Once you have my name, you'll want to take it from me.
Desperate eyes. Focusing light.
We don't want you anymore; we've got everything we need.
You believed in all our battles; even those that came from me.
Be Honest! Be Honest!
Be Honest! Be Honest!
Even those that came from me.
Be Honest! Be Honest!
Even those that came from me
