Barenaked Ladies, One And Only

Hey, pass the ball Why do you run it in circles? Waves crash the wall Soon enough all your hard work will fail

Wait, hold the phone
I don't know if I can take this
Leave me alone
I don't know if I can make this work

See, I know I'm lost and lonely Please go slow; I'm one and only

I need to think
'Cause now I've got everyone wondering
Pass me a drink
Last, but not least, and my virtue's gone

Lend me a hand I think I could walk if you help me Please understand If I could talk, I would tell you why

See, I know I'm lost and lonely Please go slow; I'm one and only

Only one All or none My heart's done Weighs a ton

Hold me a while Tell me you'll never be leaving I'll walk the mile Seeing but not guite believing you

See, I know I'm lost and lonely Please go slow; I'm one and only See, I know I'm lost and lonely (See, I know I'm lost and lonely) Please go slow; I'm one and only (Please go slow; I'm one and only)...
