Baroness, Take My Bones Away

You lead the way, I'll follow You lead the way, I'll follow

What was the plan here? I can't seem to stop! Pissing and spitting from bottom to top Picking up viscera, tendons and broken remains

Did you feel another way? Was it my turn, or yours, to say: "Did you find another way?"?

Take my bones away I'll find 'em everyday!

I took your advice and the requisite pills
And forbidden pies from a white windowsill
Swallowing caveats, Baphomet's breath and migraines
Did I tell you: "Don't come home"?
Why was your mouth beginning to foam?
Did I tell you: "Don't come home"?

Take my bones away I'll find 'em everyday

Take my bones away! Take my bones away!
