

Barque of Dante, Spread Your Wings

Do you feel weak and bored or indescribable?
Do you feel like a victim of life?
Are you the chosen one
to turn your fears undone?
All of these questions circle your mind
So why not try something new?
Leave all the thoughts of yourself
all behind and then... Fly!
Spread your wings across the sky
as you imagine a wind that forever
takes you far away
Reach as high and far beyond
of what you thought possible
and let go of all the ideas of yourself
Now you feel powerful and indestructible
Now you control your internal mind
You are the chosen one
to turn your fears undone
But if you fall in the void again...
So why not try something new?
Leave all the thoughts of yourself
all behind and then... Fly!
Spread your wings across the sky
as you imagine a wind that forever
takes you far away
Reach as high and far beyond
of what you thought possible
and let go of all the ideas of yourself Yeah! Reach as high and far beyond
of what you thought possible
and let go of all the ideas
Spread your wings across the sky
as you now feel a power way beyond yourself Lights up your life!
