Barry Manilow, Excerpt From Handel's Messiah/E

Unto us a son is given unto us a son is given unto us a son is given unto us a child is born Tonight the stars shine for the children and light the way for dreams to fly tonight our love comes wrapped in ribbons the world is right and hopes are high and from a dark and frosted window a child appears to search the sky because it's Christmas because it's Christmas tonight belongs to all the children tonight their joy rings through the air and so we send our tender blessings to all the children everywhere to see the smiles and hear the laughter a time to give a time to share because it's Christmas for now and forever for all of the children and for the children in us all tonight belongs to all the children tonight their joy rings through the air and so we send our tender blessings to all the children everywhere to see the smiles and hear the laughter a time to give a time to share because it's Christmas for now and forever for all of the children and for the children in us all
