

Barry Manilow, In Search Of Love

There is somebody
In this world somebody
She was but on earth for me
Where can her love be?
See, I'm no exception
I need real affection
What's life worth living for
If no to give it all

So...I'm reaching out
I'm in search of love
You're everything that I'm dreamin' off
I can't give up, no!
I'm reaching out
I'm in search of love

Been on my own for long enough
Well, I'm going crazy
Only you can save me
From the tears and loneliness
Girl, I must confess
That day or night time
There is no right time
For a heart to be alone
I just can't go on

So...I'm reaching out
I'm in search of love
You're everything that I'm dreamin' off
I can't give up, no!
I'm reaching out
I'm in search of love

Been on my own for long enough
Don't make me beg
Don't make me plead
Just go ahead and give me what I need
Set me free
Answer me
Can't you hear me calling out to you
I'm reaching out
I'm in search of love
You're everything that I'm dreamin' off
I can't give up, no!

I'm reaching out
I'm in search of love
You're everything that I'm dreamin' off
I can't give up, no!
I'm in search of love
You're everything that I'm dreamin' off
I'm reaching out
I'm in search of love
You're everything that I'm dreamin' off
I can't give up, no!
