

Barry Manilow, Life Will Go On

Goodbye
There's a word I hated
All my life
Unanticipated tears
Can hurt so much
My friend
It's so sad to see you
At love's end
I've been through the pain myself
It's really wrong
To play it strong

[Chorus:]
Go on and cry
'til you run dry
It's alright
Go on and scream
At broken dreams
It's alright
Let sorrow have it's day
And when it's done
Life will go on
In time

Thoughts of "might have been";
Will leave your mind
And sweet forgetfulness
Will come
Don't worry now
Just when or how
Go on and cry
'til you run dry
It's alright
Go on and scream
At broken dreams
It's alright
Let sorrow have it's day
To cry out
It's no crime
In no time
Life will go on
Go on and cry
'til you run dry
It's alright
Go on and scream
At broken dreams
It's alright
Let sorrow have it's day
And when it's done
Life will go on and on
It's alright
Yes it's alright
Let sorrow have it's day
And when it's done
Life will go on and on
