

Bars And Melody, Teenage Romance (ft. Mike Si

come a little closer
let me get a taste
looking at the stars, sipping Gatorade telling me we don't stand a chance and it's just another teenage romance girl I know it's late but you're cute and you know the way I like it gir swear you already knew me green eyes, pale skin, you're a baddie you ain't gotta do a thing you already have me will you run away in the morning? well you break my hart when I am turning? girl I know you're bad but I am a demon, can you hear me breathing? soon I mingh be leaving

come a little closer

telling me we don't stand a chance
come a little closer
get a taste
looking at the stars, sipping Gatorade
telling me we don't stand a chance

baby m how do I get you to mny place tell me how you like it girl I don't wanna time waste my hands, your lips I wanna taste baby, you could do your thing let it be at my place

I see you pretty you're shining
I already know that you like that fine demand forget about your ex let me be your silver lining you like the arrogance I can see you smiling

come a little closer

telling me we don't stand a chance
get a taste
