

Bartek Wrona, Tango - This Love

The special love was so hard to find

Tell me you want our dance.

1. Embrace me, girl, just one more time

I will be yours, you'll be mine

Just for a while.

Tell me you want our dance to begin

We are destined for

The perfect sin.

Yeah, let our hearts magnetize in a tango

Like a dream, seems not for real, but baby you and me.

Ref:

I wanna dance tonight

We are together in a tango

Let the moment last, and I don't care, what happens next.

2. I'll take the bad things, and turn them to dust

We belong to each other

Just this once

The special love was so hard to find

Let's now forget all the past

Leave it behind.

Yeah, let our souls magnetize in a tango

Like a dream, seems not for real, but baby you and me

Ref:

I wanna dance tonight

We are together in a tango

Let the moment last, and I don't care, what happens next

Yeah, let our hearts magnetize in a tango

Like a dream, seems not for real, but baby you and me
