

Basia Hetmańska, THIN LINE I WALK

I have seen enough
Now I close my eyes
Most of people doesn't see the point
Help me understand
figure it out I guess
I'll come closer grab my hand tightly
I feel that you remember
feel that you remember
Dreams from past you didn't make it out

I fucked up now I miss you
I fucked up now I miss you
Shame I am only human can't you see
It's a thin thin line I walk
It's a thin thin line I walk
It's a thin thin line I walk both sides of it
See the other side of iline
See the other side of line
See the other side of line appear so tempting

I feel that you remember
feel that you remember
Dreams from past you didn't make it out

I fucked up now I miss you
I fucked up now I miss you
Shame I am only human can't you see
It's a thin thin line I walk
It's a thin thin line I walk
It's a thin thin line I walk both sides of it
See the other side of line
See the other side of line
See the other side of line appear so tempting
