

Bastille, Remind Me

I try to forget you
I try to move on
To run from the memories
That keep me up till dawn
They break every silence
Your voice is in my head
It echoes through the nights when You're there with someone else

Who's there to side you?
(Who's there? Who's there)
Who's there to guide you?
(Who's there? Who's there)
Who's there to sleep beside you?

You remind me of the things I miss
On my sleepless nights you haunt me
I miss your lips
You remind me of our days
They're too good to fade away
Oh, oh, oh, oh I remember them
Oh, oh, oh, oh do you think of them...?

All The places you showed me
We were dancing to your beat
I still trace our shadows
Across the midnight streets
I'm trapped in these scenes that
I would die to leave behind
Oh, just like eternal sunshine
Can I delete you from my mind?

Who's there to side you?
(Who's there? Who's there)
Who's there to guide you?
(Who's there? Who's there)
Who's there to sleep beside you?

You remind me of the things I miss
On my sleepless nights you haunt me
I miss your lips
You remind me of our days
They're too good to fade away
Oh, oh, oh, oh I remember them
Oh, oh, oh, oh do you think of them...?

Why can't I forget to remember?
I forget to remember
I forget to remember you
