

Batalion d'Amour, 23.11

I've been there so many times
In those places of death in those places of cries
But please remember - I'll never come back, I'll never give up
It's only only a few words, it's only only a few lies
And please remember those places were never quite good for love
I'm not the one
But you'll never be so safe from harm when you were here in my arms as you were here, at that time
I'm not the one
But still can taste the tears falling down on your face
Babe, it's 10 past eleven, let's go to bed...
Talk, talk, talk to me
Your words still hurt me
More and more
But it doesn't matter
I really don't care...
