

Baumer, Denouement

Tell her now while she's still here
Tell her while you still feel brave
Don't even think about it
Don't try to figure it out
Your heart's a liar
But you should listen anyway
Tell her you love her
Your love can't be afraid

It doesn't have to be perfect like a movie scene
Love is almost always accidental (x2)

And if you know she's gone
You have to leave today
You have to find a way to find her
But just don't be afraid
Of what you think she'll say
You have to find a way to find her

It doesn't have to be perfect like a movie scene
Love is almost always accidental (x6)
