

Baumer, On Our Way

What's with the lonely it's out of place
you know I am here beside you.
I'll try my best.
I've tested the waters and they are deep enough for two.
Closer now, closer to my heart,
I'll pull up until I slip again.
Faster now; fasten, I'm the driver;
I'll steer us into a happy end.
It's a wonderful world in terms of potential.
No wonder it's special.

On our way, no stopping now, baby.
All the way, slowly counting down days to.
On our way, no stopping now, baby.
All the way, slowly counting down days to go.

We're slowly counting down days to go.

Don't hide your crying inside your hands
you know I'll do everything I can.
I'll break my back, in fact, I have once or twice;
still, I'll do it again.
Closer now, closer to my heart,
I'll pull up until my fingers break.
Faster now; fasten, I'm the driver;
I'll steer us straight with all my strength.
It's a wonderful world in terms of potential.
No wonder it's special.

On our way, no stopping now, baby.
All the way, slowly counting down days to.
On our way, no stopping now, baby.
All the way, slowly counting down days to go.

No stopping now, we're counting down days.
No stopping now, we're counting down.

On our way, no stopping now, baby.
All the way, slowly counting down days to.
On our way, no stopping now, baby.
All the way, slowly counting down days to go.
