

Baxter, Burden

What is the burden of crying out loud?
Who can speak with the confidence when you're tearing us down?
We were born into slavery and you're born proud.
What is the burden of crying out loud? (For you)
Where will I be ten years from now
Without your support and without your help?
We were born into slavery and that's our culture.
We can't be the same,
I'll have you know we're all crying for you.
