

Baxter, Descend

Bury me in these mistakes
All these thoughts I've let you lay
There are no channels left to change
How much longer could it wait?
I've been caged for way too long
I can't tell what is right or wrong
Please tell me why I can't see the way you see
This one's coming down upon me now
Yes I feel it
No I won't be changed
Left behind in your haste
You've given me enough to taste
I don't know just how you feel
I hope to God I never will Sinking, lost in melodic chimes...
