And made each other cry
Remember

Remember all the little things
We used to say

I wonder why we ever can to say goodbye

Singy sangy song
We used to sing along
Remember
The sparkle in your eyes
Was like the starry skies

We would drum along
To the beat of the drum
Remember
And the band began to play
And we began to sway
Remember
