

Bayside, How To Fix Everything

The sharper the edge, the cleaner the wound
So I'll be keeping it dull tonight
For I deserve to hurt
Disfigure the outside
To show how ruined I am
There's no pain and no pleasure when you're Too numb to feel

There's a pedestal across the room
And if I try to climb again
This time the fall is fatal
Now, I don't deserve such an easy exit
So maybe my Spine can snap on impact and I'll have to crawl away.

I'm ready to take that big step
Start tearing off the layers I put up
Or is it too late to be Anything but what I am
Identify the problem
Now let's see
If we can fix anything.

Just close the door and let me do what I need
Cause it's better for us
If you just let me leave.
