

Bayside, No One Understands

I've always played the fool around here
I'm starting to worry that I rush through life forgetting to breath
We all need some time to adapt
No one understands
No one understands
What its like

I had high hopes of silver and gold;
I thought this could change for the best
My mom always said I was named for a saint but I never felt I was blessed
No one understands
No one understands
No one understands
What it's like

I got your cure right here
Is that what you want to hear?
I've played the fool too many times
I've been catching up
For all my life
And it seems
It gets harder to believe it gets harder but
Be honest
If the sun dont shine tomorrow well survive

I turn this up as loud as it goes
And it ain't doing much for the pain
Its up to me and the heart on my sleeve
That hasnt quite been the same
No one understands
No one understands
No one understands
What it's like

I got your cure right here
Is that what you want to hear?
I've played the fool too many times
I've been catching up for all my life and it seems
It gets harder to believe
It gets harder but
Be honest
If the sun dont shine tomorrow well survive

I'm in a field of landmines
A cruise ship to hell
O but I dont think about that It's so hard to find help
these days
When everyone's counting on me
But I'm burnt already

I got your cure right here
Is that what you want to hear?
I've played the fool too many times
I've been catching up for all my life and it seems
It gets harder to believe it gets harder but be honest
If the sun dont shine tomorrow
If the sun dont shine tomorrow
If the sun dont shine tomorrow
then well survive
