

BBMak, The Beginning

You don't know what it's like To be there when it's over
If love was like a battlefield
Would you put me on your shoulder

Time don't mend broken hearts
And this one's getting colder
And as the seasons fall apart
And I feel a little older
I know you're wrong
To leave me where I'm standing

I don't want... to let you go
But in my heart...
now I know
That its only the beginning of the end

I don't know anymore
These days are never-ending
This love is like an open door and I'm tired of just pretending

I don't want... to let you go
But in my heart...
now I know
That its only the beginning of the end

When I gave my heart to you I didn't know what love could do
To all the pain it'd put me through

I don't want... to let you go
But in my heart...
now I know
That its only the beginning of the end
I don't want... to let you go
But in my heart...
now I know
That its only the beginning of the end
