Wedding Bell

Humming

you're humming tomorrow's nursery rhyme but you're singing the only words you know would you cry if I lie 'til the day

I chose it

you're ringing the only wedding bell
and we're swimming the seas we know so well

I tried to stay in line in our deaths
in our heads

Oh, but your wish is my command...

Oh, is your heart still mine for sale?

I'd like yours, here is mine.

I chose it

you're ringing the only wedding bell
and we're swimming the seas we know so well

in our heads

Oh, but your wish is my command...
