

Beaches, The Glory of Love

This is a song I've been singing for a long time
It's like an old friend but, you know, I think it
It's only recently that I discovered what it's really about You've got to give a little, take a little
And let your poor heart break a little
That's the story of, that's the glory of love
You've got to laugh a little, cry a little Until the clouds roll by a little
That's the story of, that's the glory of love

As long as there's the two of us
We've got the world and all it's charms
And when the world is through with us
We've got each other's arms
You've got to win a little, lose a little
Yes, and always have the blues a little
That's the story of, that's the glory of love
That's the story of, that's the glory of love
