

Bear Hands, Bad Blood

I would rather bury you
Than marry you at sea
Swiftest current, darkest waves
We just fall asleep
And I would rather bury you
Than marry you at sea
Sharpest waters you can find
From here out to the East
That someone that you can be
That never had let us touch
Let you down easily
Buh-buh-buh bad bad bad blood
That someone that you can be
That never had let us touch
Let you down easily
Buh-buh-buh bad bad bad blood
I would rather bury you
Than marry you at sea
Sharpest waters you can find
From here out to the East
From here out to the Eastern border
States of Carolines
Somewhere warm you can go
And keep your head in line
That someone that you can be
That never had let us touch
Let you down easily
Buh-buh-buh bad bad bad blood
That someone that you can be
That never had let us touch
Let you down easily
Buh-buh-buh bad bad bad blood
I would rather bury you
Than marry you at sea
Swiftest current, darkest waves
We just fall asleep
