

Beat Crusaders, Ghost

I saw a dream That the world's disappeared
I thought I'd be Breaking down every rule
I saw a dream That the world's in a scheme
I thought I'd be Hiding out every clue
Here I am Watching all people's laughter
Here I am Watching those people
I'm in love with a ghost It's a beautiful thing in the world
I'm in love with a ghost Such a beautiful thing in the world
I saw a dream That the world's disappeared
I thought I'd be Breaking down every rule
I saw a dream That the world's in a scheme
I thought I'd be Hiding out every clue
Here I am Watching all people's laughter
Here I am Watching those people
I'm in love with a ghost It's a beautiful thing in the world
I'm in love with a ghost Such a beautiful thing in the world
I'm in love with a ghost
