

Beat Happening, Fall

i'll do i walk down stairs to talk to you i came in, i tried to sit and i tried to talk this whole thing through your love is so complete and your love justifies my feelings we should live together and we should never, never bye bye, mari and momoe, and bye bye, takaaki and bret, and bye bye, ai in america, and bye bye heather bye bye, bye bye

we were walking along the street and i fell down, and you said to me, you said, 'calvin you're my guy with incredible blue eyes but i've got to live my own life' falling through her bed you walk upstairs to say we're through but no, uh-uh, uh-uh, no i already knew
