

Bebe & Cece Winans, Heaven

I felt by writing this song
It would reveal all my heart
And tell you the way that I'm feeling
I feel like telling you how much I love you so
No special reason, just thought you should know
I felt by writing this song
It would reveal all my heart
And tell you the way that I'm feeling
I feel like telling you how much I love you so
No special reason, just thought you should know
