

Beborn Beton, Rain

I don't want to be misunderstood
In case you're worried - I'm sad
But I don't mean you no harm

It's just that I don't want to be fucked
By anybody - at least
Not by a miserable tart

Like you - I don't remember saying
Something like I resign
To someone else's desire

With every second spent on the thought
You may have ruined my life
I'd rather wrap you in wire

Suddenly the rain is falling down on me
And I see clearly
Finally your love for me has gone
If there was some

So what gives you the right to just go
And leave me freaking alone
Is it really so hard

For you to keep on living with me
Like we were having such fun
You are dependent on me

I can't allow you moving around
And getting any ideas
You better stay where you are

Until you're tired o'hugs and kisses
We are gonna have a good time
Keeping up family ties
