Becca, Turn To Stone

I don't know what went wrong
You touch my and act as if we don't belong
It'll fade, so you say
You come on strong then you change and walk away
You try to stare me down with your lies
By looking in your eyes and [Chorus:]
I turn to stone
You are not the one I used to know
And you'll take and I'll break but I'll go
Where it's safe, I turn to stone
But life goes on and on and on
Don't recognize who you've become
You're acting sly right in front of anyone
It'll fade, so I've been told
Till the one ignites you come and try to hold
I got a lightning rod in my bane
I can't explain

[Repeat Chorus:]
Oh, no
Your true colors are starting to show
I will build up this wall and I'll go
Nothing's left
I turn to stone
But life goes on
Nothing is the same
You'll never change
And I am out the door
Gotta save myself
From this shame in hell
I can't take it anymore
I don't know
So it's wrong
Cuz
[Repeat Chorus:]
