

Beck Mongolian Chop Squad, I Call You Love

I just found your letter
I feel your sadness worlds apart
No words can say
Im sorry
Youre everything that matters
And forever Ill know that
If you call my name
Ill follow
In all my life
No one so real
Untainted love
With you I can ascend
Ill go with you
I'll go with you
I wont look back
I wont look back
I wont look back
I wont look back
I wont look back
So dont look back
I wont look back
I can call you love
You can call me lover
You can call me love
I can call you lover
Let me call you love
Wont you call me lover
Wont you please say love
Ill love you forever
Hold out my hand
Ill call your name
Please take me there
No I will not look back
I go with you
I go with you
I go with you
Ill grow with you
I go with you
I go with you
