

Becky Hill, Personally

You don't need listen read the words on my lips
I don't need permission to be acting like this
Acting so aggressive
Holding on my pride
I think you get the message
So don't you even try

To go on justifying with the words on your lips
Cause I know you're lying when you say that I'm missed
So don't be so defensive
Holding on your pride
Yeah I get the message
So I won't even try

I hope you take it
I hope you take it
Personally

I hope you take it
I hope you take it
Personally

I'm not begging you to say you're sorry
You don't even recognise you hurt me

I hope you take it
I hope you take it
Personally

I'm not asking you to care about us
6 years in the making but I think I've had enough
Some may call it selfish
But I don't wanna blame
I know that you don't worry
But your loss is my gain

I hope you take it
I hope you take it
Personally

I hope you take it
I hope you take it
Personally

I'm not begging you to say you're sorry
You don't even recognise you hurt me

I hope you take it
I hope you take it
Personally
