

Bee Gees, A Long Time Ago

Sitting here , all alone
Wondering what to do
Life went faster than the time
I had to achieve the things I had in mind

Their disguise , I see with my eyes
Many things I should have realized
A long time ago , long long time ago

Never changing , ever aging
It drags from day to day
I wish that I had found myself
Before it robbed me of the time

Oh no , oh no
I should have realized
A long long time ago
A long time ago
A long time ago

(break)

Seeing things , open doors
People invited me into
Oh they were so good to me
And always helped me on my way

Then I woke from this dream
Known that I should have realized
A long time ago
Long long time ago

Another day , another way
I don't care what people say
No , I realize that there's no other way for me

Suppose I'll just have to live from day to day
Oh no , oh no
I should have realized
A long long time ago
A long time ago
A long time ago
