

Bee Gees, Every Day I Have To Cry

There was a little girl I planned to marry, if this was my love I didn't want to share.
I thought that love would make my life bright and sunny, but she said she could not love me 'cause I didn't have no money.

Every day I have to cry so,
drying the water from my eyes so,
till the clouds slowly pass by (?)
every day I have to cry.

I got me a girl,
I guess I really love her,
'cause every night I've been thinking over.
But you can't live all your love this morning,
but if you do it's gonna hurt somebody.
Every day I have to cry so,
drying the water from my eyes so,
till the clouds slowly pass by (?)
every day I have to cry.

I thought I know she's just a woggle (?)
if she found a love because she's not a rich girl (?)
but every time you reach love this morning (?)
every time it's gonna hurt somebody.

Every day I have to cry so,
drying the water from my eyes so,
till the clouds slowly pass by (?)
every day I have to cry.
