Gone Gone Gone

No more room to roam

I have lost my hope

Stars have all gone in

Which way have I been

I'm too rich to learn

And far too cold to burn

Gone gone are the days , I cried

When I could so easily have tried

Work , work ,when instead I laughed

And nothing now I have

Hoping much too long

My eyes are not so strong

I just can not see

What is right and wrong

Gone gone are the days , I cried

When I could so easily have tried

Work , work ,when instead I laughed

And nothing now I have

Ahh.... (fade)
