

Bee Gees, Man For All Seasons

Everybody wants to leave
Just like you and I
I have all year to smile
A tear for every eye

Life closed it's eyes, broke my world, now I cry
I've got to tell you, I've got the reasons
'Cause I'm a man, a man for all seasons, alive

And would I pray
What makes the world go round
I haven't got today
My mind is lost and found

Life closed it's eyes and said goodbye, now I cry
But I've got to tell you, I've got my reasons
'Cause I'm a man, a man for all seasons, alive
And would I pray what makes the world go round
I haven't got today, my mind is lost and found
Du du du du du du du

I'm a man for all seasons
I'm a man for all seasons
I'm a man for all seasons
I'm a man for all seasons
