

Bee Gees, One Minute Women

One minute, women ,please,
I'd go down on my knees
to say to you with a word so true
"I love you";

I fail to understand why you don't want my hand
I try to find what's on your mind
I wonder

Why don't you stop and see
Why you're not loving me:
Would it hurt to say "Hello";
or don't you know?

One minute, women, please,

I'd go down on my knees
to say to you with a word so true
"I love you";

Why don't you stop and see
why you're not loving me:
Would it hurt to say "Hello";
or don't you know?

One minute, women,please,
I'd go down on my knees
to say to you with a word so true
"I love you, I love you. I love you.";
