

Before The Dawn, Angel

[music: T. Saukkonen | Words: P. Willman]

Deep inside me is a world of fear Deep inside me beyond compare

I seek my saviour to prevent my failures

Breathing hate with twisted grin please separate me from that skin

Worth for nothing do all these tears this world is dying acts inhuman
Making me change my ways of crying

Reasoned, senseless, that's how I feel how defenseless and blind can one be purified shall be my name after your hand placing this picture to the frame I alone stand
