

Before The Dawn, Human Hatred

[music: T. Saukkonen | words: P. Willman/J. Saajanaho]

Ignorance is bliss hatred shows the way things that make a man to act in godly ways

Suffocate he must the anger down inside fight against himself but will he win this time

Break the weaker mind crush the thin white spine nothing here is not so sacred too big of a cross to bear is the beauty that we share
...give into human hatred

The world is crawling in bitterness and human hatred we live for breeding sin

Victims are deep inside cloudy is the sky Getting darker all the time scary is the deepest secret the path is lit with lies blinding you for life
...give into human hatred
