

Behemoth, Christians To The Lions

behold bastard son
I am the evil one
no glory to be reached
no more thy slavery
the passion I besieged
spawn terror
smash thy will ye pale dominion fades away my will dominates

and watch my star arise burning up the earth
sun - the eye of gods
threw into the space
watch ye moon eclipse
falling from thy grace
watch all nations cry
all feared ov his name
praise the flame!
watch angels falling from the skies
praise the flame!
I killed thy god
my will is done!
thou art lord

rise me! rise me high!
lead thru the gates ov sun
rise me! rise me high!
where angels do not dare to fly invite to feast ov gods and let me drift away
leave flames ov infamy
and watch me kiss the stars
