Behemoth, Ecclesia Diabolica Catholica

eritis sicut dii thus sermonized the serpent ov eden thus struck the breath ov the earth and thus flooded the blood of the soul sloither into the gaping void!

I worship thee, o vicious man! now mark my words ye mortal race feed my wrath with lion's gore feed my envy with the fat ov lambs as the wicked ways will flourish behold the mouments ov god decay lex divinus, I stamp the dust I despoil the holy books I descrete the angelic verses like dead leaves wither they to ash as I am leading the host ov stars onwards, embrace the sun in absentia dei we sermonize in ecclesia satan thy might is right

I have watched the birth ov planets
I have witnessed the death ov worlds
I've conucted the choir ov star
I have ridden the tail ov the comet from got to ash from dust to man in absentia dei we evangelize in absentia Christi we spread like swarming plagues in ecclesia Satan thy might is right
