Behind Enemy Lines, Non-Lethal Weapons

With the United States and other first world powers stepping up their efforts at globalization One of their biggest obstacles has proven to be the conscience resistance from the civilian population Governments are closely working together with industry utilizing the latest in non-lethal weaponry Cracking down on dissent with domestic policing Learning from the riots of the 1990's Identifying these so-called threats with political profiling Targeting the organizers of political movements under the guise of protecting the civilian populace Public relations propaganda fuels these political witch-hunts Demonizing protesters as violent terrorists Allowing more repression and torture of the non-combatant The lie that protesters causing violence is the actual threat is beat into the heads of the American public Neutralize the threat Eliminate the threat Neutralize the threat

Eliminate

The pentagon and the D.O.D. are using non-lethal munitions for social control and American corporate global domination Inciting violence with riot control agents Civilizing the brutality that protesting now warrants but where's the civility in unrestrained brutality Those killed by non-lethal weapons aren't any less dead and the murderers who are responsible aren't any less accountable be it politicians, businessmen or the soldiers in their stead Neutralize the threat

Eliminate the threat Neutralize the threat Eliminate

If they don't ever have to answer for what they do then they're free to make an example out of you with their chemicals agents, vortex weapons hallucinogens, pulse lasers, optical munitions Weapons that induce confusion, stupor and coma or debilitate your central nervous system Cause nausea, bowel spasms, paralysis, seizure heat your skin to an unbearable temperature Burning, crippling, deforming, killing immobilizing, disabling, incapacitating, All committed over a safety net of legality but masking the language to conceal the lethality