

Beholder, The Ancient Prophecy - The Oath

Glory is near, I will ride the sky, my dreams will come reality
My mission is my only aim, I will consecrate my name
My land won't be sacrificed, a holy kingdom's in my mind
My sword is ready to destroy the black emperor to save
All the brothers of the reign, they will forget the pain

[CHORUS:]

And when the light will return we will be free, forever!
Our dreams will come true and we will ride, together! Eternally!

Lord, you're my witness everyday, I'm the one who can deny
The return of evil reign, they will burn under my flame
My sword is ready to destroy the black emperor to save
All the brothers of the reign, they will forget the pain

[CHORUS - SOLO: Pete Ryan - CHORUS]
