

Bela, The Strings

And though you're still hypnotizing me
Even enchanted I see you're torn
Always entangled in weaknesses
And I can't breathe like this any more

Do not tell me nothing's happened
I have heard it far too long from you
What you give is never better
Hurry if you feel it like I do

So you have laughed at me once again
And I am planning my sweet revenge
Don't dare to think that you'll get away
From the price for all you've broken

Do not tell me nothing's happened
I have heard it far too long from you
What you give is never better
Hurry if you feel it like I do
