

Bell Book and Candle, From yesterday

What's going on here they told me to my face and I did not care about to win the race come on and go straight ahead and I can't deny I'm feeling oh so glad here I stay
I come from yesterday
hey - here comes the girl without shame
here I stay
hey - here comes the girl without shame
I'll have the last say I'm stepping out of line you're about to turn away but that will suit me fine come on and look straight ahead I really wonder why I'm feeling oh so glad
here I stay ...
