

Bell Book and Candle, The usual thing

Hiding and deriding
fighting off my fears feigning, cheating, lying right here in my head leaving and repaying
faking and betraying
feel between the devil and the deep blue sea trying and despising
bribing and denying
losing and refusing
fighting off my fears
spoliing and ignoring
could it be me or even the usual thing me or even the nature of things me or even the usual thing
