

Belle Perez, 2000 Miles

He's gone 2000 miles
Is very far
The snows falling down
It's colder day by day
I miss you

The children were singing
He'll be back at Christmas time

In this frozen and silent nights
Sometimes in a dream
You appear

Outside, under the purple sky
Diamonds in the snow
So are cold

Our heart were singing
It felt like Christmas time

2000 miles
Is very far to the snow
I think of you
Wherever you go

He's gone 2000 miles
Is very far
The snows falling down
It's colder day by day
I miss you

I can hear people singing
It must be Christmas time

I hear people singing
It must be Christmas time
