

Belle Perez, Demasiado Corazon

Every morning i'm broken,
every day i die.
every night i weaken
and every night i cry.
standing in the rain,
in the street outside.
running down my face
tears in my eyes.

Demasiado corazon

Demasiado corazon

Demasiado corazon

Demasiado corazon

Don't know why i wake up,

don't know why i try.

was that me the cool one or some other girl.

standing in the shadows

of the sky above.

no one knows i'm crying

beatened by my love.
