

BEMY, Lifeless

[ZWROTKA 1]

I can see your disgust, man
I'm not blind you know
You think it's a choice, my friend
I'd trade my life with yours

Every time someones dodges me
It makes me little less human
Every night I sleep for free
Makes me a little more broken

I found a little diamond in her eyes
She brightened my night just like fireflies
After she hugged me I felt like I could rise
Are you the one who'll take me to paradise

[REFREN]

It might be love, it might be lies
I'm not sure what to make of your little dark crying eyes
Oh, she wouldn't care to be honest (x2)

[ZWROTKA 2]

Thank you lord for helping me
Stand up and walk again
But I have nowhere to be
So I sit back and beg, men
I can hear you talking to me
But I can't seem to see you
Does that mean I'm finally free
From this life of misery

I found a little diamond in her eyes
She brightened my night just like fireflies
After she hugged me I felt like I could rise
Are you the one who'll take me to paradise

[REFREN]

It might be love, it might be lies
I'm not sure what to make of your little dark crying eyes
Oh, she wouldn't care to be honest (x7)
Take me away I've given up on tryin'
I know you're not a girl, you're death and I accept it
No one's gonna miss me anyway
Just try to be homeless for a day
