

Ben Gibbard & Andrew Kenny, Churchmouse In The Churchhouse

Does he know, know, know?
Does he know, know, know?
Does he know, know, know?
Does he know, know, know?

You can be a little church mouse
In a box underneath the church house
If you never make a sound now
And he never finds out now

But you couldn't keep a little church mouse
Not with all the money in your purse now
Not for all the liquor in the church house
Or the pussy keeping watch now

Does he know, know know?
Does he know, know know?
Does he know, know know?
Does he know, know know?

Does he know he could've saved me?
Does he know he could've saved me?
How can he know not be crazy?
How can he know not be crazy?
