

Ben Harper, The Word Suicide

The word suicide is irresponsible
Still you offer to buy me a gun
What's so hard about sympathy?
Love is a lonely room
Love is a lonely room
When out on the edge there's just two directions
And somebody has to lose, I should know better
Then to use words like never and hate
Love is a lonely room
Love is a lonely room
And this is no way to live
And this is no way to die
Who in the hell's life is this
I'm living this way?
Love is a lonely room
Love is a lonely room
Love is a lonely room
Love is a lonely room
Well, love is a lonely room, lonely room
Love is a lonely room, love is a lonely room
Love is a lonely room, yeah
