

Ben Lee, Just Pretend

While I held you with our undry eyes Happy years pass by It's OK to cry

After all
In the end
Just pretend

Well it's sticks and stones and broken homes
that taught us how to smile

After all
In the end
Just pretend

There's a name that plays in my head like a song
all day long she's with me every day

After all
In the end
Just pretend

Everyone needs
Everyone needs
Everyone needs

If the sun can't shine
you'll be just fine
look into your mind
where you're free

After all
In the end
Just pretend

Cause we heard each other once before
lets not do that again

After all
In the end
Just pretend

And a voice so familiar wakes me up in the middle if she thinks I'm having a bad dream

After all
In the end
Just pretend

Everyone needs
Everyone needs
Everyone needs

After all
It's the end
